Louisville, Ky., May 19.—M. B. Gruber's Little Nephew, which took Old Rosebad's measure the Rachford Manor Purse of $1,000. Loftus had the mount on the winner and the diminuity J. McCabe closely held to the theory, that with drever the second of these houseless of the control of these who watched the vacclesely held to the theory that with riders reversed to the barrier with a rush and forced McCabe to take his mount back in the first furlong, which cost he barrier with a rush and forced McCabe to take his mount back in the first furlong, which cost held to the theory that with the Nephew Control of these who watched the vacclesely held to the theory that with riders reversed rapidly, but was forced to go around Little Nephew Control of the State of the and held Gowell safe all the way. Gowell would have given the winner a stout argument- and might possibly have won with a stronger rider than McCabe.

McCabe's presence in the saddle on Prince Hermiscaused many to abstain from backing that horse, and those who had the hardihood to support the colt received good odds. He was by far the best and drew out in the last furlong to overhaul Polly D, which in the early stages threatened to spreadeagle her opposition. After many trials, Dick Baker managed to get home in the van when he took the purse in the closing dash from the heavily supported Sleeth.

The James MacManus establishment got into early action when representatives of the stable took the two opening races, Anna Patricia beating Theresa Gill and Robinetta repeating a former performance to win the second dash. Both were favorites and handled by J. Henry.

Today's attendance was again of large proportions and speculation on a par with former big days. The track was slow at the outset but dried rapidly as a result of constant work on it with the harrows. If no more rain falls it should be in excellent condition for tomorrow's raceing.

Jocky Buxton was suspended for five days by the stewards after the fifth race for attempted rough riding while astride Polly D.

The program book for the Belmont Park meeting was distributed to horsemen here this morning and was favorably commented on. The purse offerings on racing days will average $4.800, including stakes, and several owners after looking the book over planned to ship cast at the close of the Latonia racing.

Albert Berlin, who has been employed in an official capacity in the secretary's office at Churchial Downs and Lexington, will leave next Sunday for New York, having received notification today of his appointment as assistant clerk of the scales on all New York tracks.

A. L. Aste, owner of Ten Point, returned this afternoon from New York and will remain in Kentucky until after the running of the Latonia Derby, in which Ten Point will be a starter. Mr. Aste estated that the racing outlook in the east is decidedly promising and that the Saratoga meeting is expected to be on a par with those formerly held at the Spa.

John W. Schorr, while in Lexington yesterday, purchased three Star Shoot coits from John E. Madden, He also bought a Plaudit youngster from W. S. Threlkead, of Pleasantville, Tenn. Mr. Schorr is still undecided about dividing his stable with a view to sending some to Toronto for the racing at Woodbine.

Charles Rowe, who is handling the horses owned by Otto Stifel, is intending to ship the horses at the close of the Churchill Downs racing to Montreal and later to take part in the Inaugural meeting at Ottawa.

W. J. Spiers today signed a contract with E. Martin to ride for his stable.

John Hachmeister was a visitor at Churchill Downs this afternoon and announced that he is making preparations to entertain the big crowd that is expected at the Douglas Park opening to witness the running of the valuable Kentucky Handicap. He has received advices that delegations will be here from Nashville, Memphis, Chicago, Indianapolis, Detroit and New York.

Tomorrow will be a big day at the Downs, The Churchill Downs Handicap Purse, value $1,000, is carded for the special editication of delegates from all over the country in attendance here at the annual meeting of the Plumbers and Sanitary Inspectors of America. There will be 250 members of that organization in attendance. They will have the privileges of the clubhouse, which will be elaborately decorated. The master of ceremonies in conection with the visit of the plumbers and sanitary inspectors to Churchill Downs will be James S. McGrath, Plumbing Inpector of Louisville.

BOOKMAKER GAINES DIES IN EAST.

New York, May 19.—Ed Gaines, a former book-maker who operated on both sides of the Atlantic, is dead, practically penniless. Gaines, so the story goes, once cleaned up $100,000 laying against the big betters on the lawn at Gravesend one day many years ago. Gaines saw "Circular Joe" Vendig, P. J. Dwyer's betting commissioner, hustling toward the betting ring to place $10,000 on a 1 to 6 favorite. "How much have you got?" asked Gaines, who had a trife more than $2,000 in his pocket. "Ten thousand." replied Vendig. "I'll lay 1 to 4." replied Gaines. Gaines got the big bet, standing to lose $2,500, but the favorite was beaten. With his winnings he proceeded to lay better prices than other book-makers, and soon had a fortune.

HEARTS OF OAKS WORKS BRILLIANTLY.

Toronto, Ont., May 19.—Interest in the work at Woodbine this morning centered in the training of the King's Platers, only two of which were worked, but these were the most prominent of the lot. Hearts of Oak was sent three-quarters of a mile and his speed in the early stages was brilliant. Setting out with Ondramida, he quickly headed her and went the first furlong in :11%, and the quarter in :23. The pace was well maintained for three furlongs in :34%, the half mile was done in :47%, and five furlongs in :101. The big colt then tired and finished out the six furlongs in :13%. He was not ridden hard and he carried much more than his weight. Ondramida, outpaced in the first part, was closing in solendid fashion at the finish and will be an invaluable second string.

Mausolus does not look so dangerous after his mile and a quarter today. He went alone and had about 120 pounds up. The first half was in :50%, three-quarters in 1:16%, one mile in 1:44%, and the mile and a quarter in 2:14%. He was sprawling at the head of the stretch and had lost his action after going a mile. The work may tighten him up, but for the oresent he does not look like the horse that will beat Hearts of Oak or even Ondramida.

The Seagram pair, Voivode and Maid of Frome, worked a mile in 1:46%, and a mile and a quarter in 2:15%, shortly after daybreak Sunday over a wet track.

The track today was dry and good, but there was

PIMLICO FIELDS REDUCED

TRACK CONDITIONS IMPROVE, BUT MUCH SCRATCHING IS INDULGED IN.

Donald Macdonald Adds Another to His String of Firsts-Jesuit Has Easy Time of It in Winning the Steeplechase.

Baltimore, Md., May 19.—Despite a big improvement in track conditions over Saturday, scratches were numerous at Pimilco this afternoon, the fields in several of the events being materially reduced by withdrawals. The Maryland Jockey Club offered three features as attractions—the Green Spring Valley Steeplechase, the Brewers Selling Handicap, and the Maryland Club Purse. Class was conspicuously absent, but well balanced fields made amends in a way for the lack of quality. Jesult made a show of his opposition in the steeplechase. He sprinted into a long lead on the first turn of the held and at the finish Heider had him under a stout pull. El Bart, which finished second, was half a dozen lengths away.

Napier, well handled by J. Wilson, was returned winner of the Brewers' Selling Stakes. He responded with good courage after following the pacemakers to the stretch turn and had something in reserve when My Fellow challenged.

Old Donald Macdonald added another to his string of victories when he galloped home an easy winner in the Maryland Club Purse. He was ridden by Butwell, while Wilson, the regular stable jockey, had the mount on Judge Walser.

The R. T. Wilson stable, in charge of trainer Tom Healey, was shipped to New York today and will be campaigned at Belmont Park.

W. L. Oliver, who has successfully raced the stable of Dr. J. S. Tyree, will in the future confine his operations to his own horses, Sir Layton, Kewessa and Abbotsford, which will be shipped to Belmont Park shortly. The Tyree horses will be handled by J. J. McCafferty in the future.

A consignment of horses left Sunday night for Toronto, which included those owned by H. G. Bedwell, W. B. Carson, W. R. Mizell, Mike Daly, R. G. Martin and E. J. McGraw.

Capt. P. M. Walker will ship his horses to Belmont Park on Thursday. The J. L. Holland string, including the good two-year-olds Garl and Gordon, will entrain for the same place on Wednesday.

Work on a new grandstand will be started at the voodbine track. Toronto, immediately after the close of the

BUYS FIFTEEN YEARLINGS FROM A. BELMONT.

Lexington, Ky., May 19.—William J. Treacy, acting for the Kentucky Sales Company, has purchased from August Belmont fifteen of his Nursery Studycarlings. No announcement as to the price or the purpose of the transaction has been made, but it is quite likely that it is "a flyer in racing stock" and that the youngsters will be put up and sold at auction here in September. THIRTY LEADING AMERICAN JOCKEYS.

By riding six winners at Pimlico last week J. Wilson became the leader among American jockevs, displacing the apprentice rider Wolfe, who headed the list for several weeks. Wolfe has been riding unsuccessfully of late and is tied with Groth, who is riding in the far west, for second place. The record of the thirty leaders from January 1 to and including the racing of Saturday last is as follows:

BROODMARE KILLED BY MARAUDERS.

Lexington, Ky., May 19.—The six-year-old chest-nut thoroughbred mare, Yolanda, by St. Florian out-of the English mare Involved, by Royal Hampton, belonging to W. S. Threlkeld, of Pleasureville. Ky., was found dead in a paddock on the farm of Thomas Smiley near this city. She had been shot in the breast, presumably by some maranders who had passed through the place from a fishing pond during the night. Yolanda's third dam was Plais-anterie, the grandam of the St. Leger winner, Tracery, and she was regarded as a good broodmare-prospect. She had been mated with Fair Play at August Belmont's Nursery Stud.

KING'S PLATE AN OPEN RACE.

Francis Nelson, the versatile sporting editor of the Toronto Globe, writes on the subject of next Saturday's notable race at Woodbine as follows:

"With the King's Plate less than a week away, we have the curious situation that it never was a more open question, in spite of the fact that the form of so many Province-breds was exposed by frequent racing last year. The change in the conditions, by which two-year-old winners remained eligible for what has been a maiden race for more sided Plate, declared the critics who think with their ears. The matter was not open to question and the ontario Jockey Club had done a foolish thing that would destroy interest in the Plate entirely. So much for the prophets. The outcome, as we now see, was more entries than last year, uncertainty about the result more widespread and the prospects for a bigger field than went to the post in 1912. These factors, it is to be noted, surround a race which has among its nominations a collaboration of the prospects for a bigger field than went to the post in 1912. These factors, it is to be noted, surround a race which has among its nominations a collaboration of the prospects for a bigger field than went to the post in 1912. These factors, it is to be noted, surround a race which has a surround a race and it may come to that in the running. It certainly is not so a few days before the race. We have had an early and unbroken spring for training and a track at Woodbine that was never better. Yet at this stage, it is the fact that there has been nothing shown that would in dicate any horse as approaching a good thing for the Guiness. NOTES OF THE TURF.

Capt. W. F. Presgrave will ship eighteen of his orses to Montreal. Sonny Boy and Salon have been added to the schooling list at Churchill Downs.

J. E. Madden has arranged to ship sixteen of his orses from Lexington to Belmont Park. The Tulsa meeting will close on Thursday next, instead of being extended until Saturday, as it had been previously announced.

The horses of A. J. Goldsborough, R. T. Wilson, E. B. Cassatt and T. F. Ryan are expected at Belmont Park within a day or two.

Word comes from Salt Lake city of the death of Dan Connelly, one of the old school of Pacific coast trainers. Pneumonia was the cause of death. Applications have been made to Joseph McLennan, the Ontario Jockey Club representative at Balti-more, for stabling for 300 horses, whose owners want to race at Woodbine.

F. R. Hitchcock, a steward of the Jockey Club, has leased to the Oneck Stable the racing qualities of Sorrel, Francis, Pan-American, Broom Sedge, Flask, Recession and Dakota for this year.

The present Churchill Dewns meeting is characterized by the management as the most successful in the history of racing at Louisville. The attendance is running 25 per cent, ahead of the best previous showing.

In Melbourne, Australia, the intention of the Victoria Racing Club to charge for admission to the flat is still productive of profests, and the city council has joined, with the Footscray Conneil in objecting to the move.

The Western Australian Turf Club has decided that in future horses three years and upwards will not be eligible for races under six furlongs, and furthermore that no race for two-year-olds shall be less than five furlongs.

Trainer A. G. Blakeley, who has a public training stable which includes horses owned by a number of prominent American horsemen, has arrived at Blue Bonnets with a string of twelve. Included in these are Yenghee and Nenpareil, owned by Thomas F. Sheedy.

"There's no money in bookmaking nowadays," we are repeatedly told. Therefore it is reasonable to assume that it is merely to avoid being worried by further losses that various Sydney bookmakers—leger as well as paddoek—are taking trips to England—Sydney Referee.

L. L. Russell, editor of the Thoroughbréd Record from 1892 to 1895 and afterwards secretary of the Queen City Jockey Club, died last week at Louisville, Ky., where he was following the vocation of optician. He was born in Hustonville, Ky., in 1855. A cerebral hemorrhage was the cause of death.

If the mutuels prove successful in connection with the coming Electric Park meeting it is probable that the other half mile tracks in the vicinity of Baltimore will conduct meetings. Their owners have had the idea that racing could not be conducted profitably with the mutuels at the minor tracks.

Ed Cole will be the presiding judge.

C. K. G. Billings is reported to have entered into a turf partnership with Frederick Johnson for the coming campaign on the New York race courses. He has purchased a half interest in six horses, according to report. Uncle Jimmie, His Nibs and Peg o' My Heart will run in Mr. Billings' colors, while Mr. Sniggs, Heartbeat and Arrington will be carded in the name of Mr. Johnson.

Trainers plying their trade at Woodbine yesterday might have wished for such perfect equipment as it is to the good fortune of many trainers in France to have in their business. At the establishment presided over by Eugene Leigh, for instance, be sits aloft in a comfortable stand from which the whole track can be observed, and he gives orders sued out by Paul Shane and directing his discharge from custody.

This appeal relates to the case of Paul Shane, an alleged bookmaker, who, by an order of Supreme Centr Justice Scudder, released Shane, holding that it is not a crime to bet on contests of speed in a horse race, and that the courts cannot read such an intent in the law.

Shane was arrested at Belmont Park Terminal on June 6, 1912, during the race meeting of the United Hunts Racing Association. It was alleged that Shane went about the track soliciting bets, allowing the takers of bets or wagers to make a memoranda of the same, while no record of the transaction was made in any manner by Shane.

Justice Scudder's decision in the case was that oral betting, as done by Shane, was not illegal, and his opinion was unanimously affirmed by the Appellate Division, Second Department. The case will be argued before the Court of Appeals about the middle of June, the exact date not yet being set.

ALL READY FOR BLUE BONNETS MEETING.

Montreal, Que., May 19.—The program book for the spring meeting of the Montreal Jockey Club at Blue Bonnets June 3-10 is out. All classes of horses have been catered to. The Canadian-owned horses have been especially well looked after, there being eight events for them, one being the Connaught Cup, with an increased entry over last season, when it was first run. The other seven events for Canadian-owned and bred horses are events for Canadian-owned and bred horses are similarly consistent of the control of the the rules of the Canadian Racing Associations to run fifty races during the period of seven days at any one track.

The going at Blue Bonnets was never in better condition than it is this spring. An early open season enabled working it at a much earlier date than in former years. The locally owned horses are already going along at a lively gait. The whole plant has been overhauled and put in condition for the opening of the meeting, which is only a little over two weeks away. The applications for stabling room indicate that there will be excellent racing material available and that the majority of the Canadian circuit regulars will return this year.

MUD RUNNERS DAY AT ALAN.

Spokane. Wash., May 19.—The Alan track today was in a sloppy condition as a result of heavy rains that fell constantly all day Sunday and up until noon today. A simple accident in the first race happened to Stella Ward, the favorite in the betting. She stumbled slightly after the field had gone about a sixteenth of a mile and, in so doing, broke her ankle at the pastern joint. There was no possible chance to save her for breeding purposes and she was immediately destroyed. She was the property of Dr. I. E. Clark, a prominent breeder of Schulenburg, Tex.

Blue-Beard, held at the liberal odds of 10 to 1, won the second race in handy fashion. Prince Philsthorpe was accorded the support of the public, but ran disappointingly and was not prominent at any time. Daddy Gip won the fourth race in easy fashion from fair opposition.

Jockey J. Cook was suspended by the judges for fifteen days for rough riding.

The Lan has been lifted from jockeys McDowell and E. McEwen, who were suspended for rough riding, to the extent that they can ride for their stable employers.

CANADIAN BREEDING BUREAU NOTES.

Montreal, Que., May 19.—The Canadian Breeding Bureau stallion Valjean won first prize at the Ottawa Horse Show, with Rosemount, another bureau stallion, second. It is likely that both of these horses with be shown in Madison Square Garden next November. Rosemount is in particularly fine form, and although the Bureau management does not like to see thoroughbreds judged by weight, still it may be interesting to know that this horse, while as hard as nails, weighs 1,306 pounds. The bureau stallion Pink Coat, winner of the American Derby, and sire of Pinkola, winner of the Latonia Derby, has been sent to E. D. Adams, Calgary.

Calgary.

The Bureau is now trying to get together a consignment of thoroughbred stallions for points around Saskatoon and Edmonto.

RACING GOSSIP FROM CANADA.

Toronto, Ont., May 19.—Legislator, a King's Plate candidate, owned by N. L. Bate, of Ottawa, will be schooled over the jumps as soon as the course is opened. He will not start in the Plate. Neither will Hollybrook.

Charles Phair has taken Tom Elwood's horses Allaneen and Lady Isle to train. Millpond, a King's Plater, has gone wrong and has been thrown out of training. Mr. Elwood has sold the two-year-old Tom Flanagan to a Montreal horseman and he has been shipped east.

George Cornell has added Lady Linwood, a four-year-old brown filly by Cricktade—Artificial to his string. Coriflambo has been withdrawn from the Plate.

COFUR D'ALENE ENTRIES.

The figures under the heading "Rec." in the entries below show the best time of each horse at the distance, since January 1, 1911, no matter where it finished. In cases where record was made on other than a fast or good track, abbreviations show track conditions.

Winner—Ch. f. by Ornondale—Plumeria (trained by O. A. Blanchi).

Went to post at 2:23. At post 3 minutes. Start fair and slow. Won driving; second and third the same. ANNA PATRICIA was backy for the entire way and, showing the most speed, took a slight lead at one and, having disposed of BILLY HOLDER in the first half, finished gamely and outstayed THERESA GILL. The latter ran well and was probably best, but was in close quarters through the final eighth.

BILLY HOLDER ran in closest pursuit for the first half and tired in the stretch drive, WORLD'S WONDER ran well and finished close up. DR. JACKSON and GERRARD closed gaps. SILK DAY was away in a tangle. WEYANOKE ran poorly.

Winner—B, g, by Uncle—Miss Granville (trained by E. Brown).

Went to post at 4:18. At post 4 minutes. Start good and slow. Won handily; second and third driving. LITTLE NEPHEW was well ridden and hustled into the lead at once and, under a vigorous ride, set a fast pace and, outgaming OLD ROSEBUD through the final seventy yards, won going away. OLD ROSEBUD, probably best, suffered from interference soon after the start and was forced to furn wide into the stretch and tired near the end. BLACK TONEY ran gamely and had no mishaps. BRIG'S BROTHER and PEBECO were badly outpaced.

Scratched—8228°Sosius, 113.

FIFTH RACE—1 Mile, (98433—1:37%—2—99.) Purse $700. 3-year-olds and upward. Allowances. Net value to winner $550; second, $100; third, $50.

Wenner—Ch. c, by Hermis—Crimea (trained by L. Marion). Went to post at 4:52. At post 1 minute. Start fair and slow. Wenner—Hermis was kept well as the run of speed in pacemaking for three-quarters, but thred in the stretch drive. STRENUOUS had to be hard ridden most of the way and only ran fairly well. SWANNANOA showed speed, but tired in the last quarter.

| Samutuels paid the starting policy of the resulting processing the pacemaking for three-quarters, but thred in the stretch drive. STRENUOUS had to be hard ridden most of the way and only ran fairly well. SWANNANOA we show; Strenuous of the stretch where he moved up resolutely and, the stretch drive. Strenuous of the fast thring POLLY D. In the last seventy yards, won going away. POLLY D. showed a fine turn of speed in pacemaking for three-quarters, but thred in the stretch drive. STRENUOUS had to be last quarter.
